 Camp Update – COVID 19 *****

We are so happy to be able to offer camps to our awesome Abby Community families once again! This summer things will look a little bit different than the years before but will still be lots of fun. Our 'new normal' will include various cleaning and physical distancing protocols, no field trips, smaller group sizes, new drop off and pick up procedures, daily health check forms, and more. Our camps will still be all about creativity, fun games and activities, new friendships, and making some awesome summer time memories! Our fantastic summer staff team is so excited to see you soon.

-Anna McWhinney, Executive Director

Please be advised that there have been policy, camp and refund revisions due to Covid-19
